

Form L1 - Checklist

Application to Evict a Tenant for Non-payment of Rent and to Collect Rent the Tenant Owes

Before you file the attached application with the Landlord and Tenant Board, make sure you can answer YES to each of the following questions. If not, your application to the Board may be dismissed, which means you may have to start over.

☒ Did you give the tenant an N4 notice?

You cannot file this application unless you gave the tenant a Notice to End your Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (Form N4).

☒ Are you applying after the termination date on the N4 notice?

You cannot file this application until the day after the termination date in the Notice to End a Tenancy Early for Non-payment of Rent (Form N4).

☒ Is the tenant still in possession of the rental unit?

You cannot file this application if the tenant is no longer in possession of the rental unit.

☒ Have you included a copy of the N4 notice and a Certificate of Service for that notice with your application?

You must include a copy of these two documents when you file your application; if you do not, your application will not be accepted. Be sure to keep copies of these documents for your records.

☒ Did you name each tenant in possession of the rental unit?

The tenant or tenants that you name in this application should be the same people you named on the N4 notice that you served.

☒ Did you fill in the complete address of the rental unit?

You must provide the full address, including the postal code. Be sure you have correctly identified the rental unit.

☒ Did you check your math?

Make sure you have correctly calculated the total amounts owing in the two tables in Part 5 (Rent Owing and NSF Cheque Charges). Check the calculation across the rows of each table and then check the total amounts in the final columns.

Also check to be sure that the amount in the box on page 1 matches the total amount owing in Part 6.

☒ Did you date and sign the application on page 5?

If your application is not signed and dated, the Board will not accept it.

Important Information for Landlords

Use this form to apply for an order to end a tenancy and evict a tenant after you give the tenant an N4 Notice to End Your Tenancy for Non-payment of Rent. Instructions for Form L1 are available on the Board's website at tribunalsontario.ca/LTB.

1. Complete all seven parts of this application.
  - Part 1 asks for information about the address of the rental unit covered by this application.
  - Part 2 requires you to fill in the total amount you believe the tenant owes you.
  - Part 3 asks for general information about:
    - you (your name, etc),
    - the tenants in possession of the rental unit,
    - any other unresolved applications that relate to the rental unit.
  - Part 4 requires you to:
    - select the reason(s) for your application to the Board,
    - provide information about the tenant's rent, the rent deposit and whether or not the tenant is still in possession of the rental unit.
  - Part 5 asks you to show how you calculated the amount the tenant may owe you.
  - Part 6 asks you to provide information about the total amount you believe the tenant owes you.
  - Part 7 requires your signature or that of your representative, and, if you are being represented, your representative's contact information.
2. Complete the Request for French-Language Services or Request for Accommodation form at the end of this application if you need additional services at the hearing.
3. Complete the checklist that is attached to the application to make sure you have completed the application form correctly. Do not include the checklist when you file the application.
4. File all pages of the application (not including this page) with the Board along with a copy of the N4 Notice to End Your Tenancy for Non-payment of Rent you gave the tenant. Also file a Certificate of Service showing how and when you served the tenant the N4 Notice. The Board will send you a Notice of Hearing showing the time and location of your hearing.
5. Pay the application fee of $201 to the Board at the same time as you file the application (or $186 if you use the Tribunals Ontario Portal). The Board will not process your application unless you pay the fee. If you mail or courier the application, you can pay the filing fee by money order, certified cheque, or by credit card. You can't pay with cash or debit card if you file by mail or courier. If you cannot afford the fee, you can submit a Fee Waiver Request.
6. Contact the Board if you have any questions or need more information.

PART 2: TOTAL AMOUNT THE TENANT OWES

The following information is from your landlord

I am applying to the Landlord and Tenant Board for an order:

- to evict you because you owe rent, and
- to collect the money you owe me.

I believe that you owe me a total of $ 1 0 , 6 6 9 , 0 0 as of 1 0 / 0 5 / 2 0 2 6 .
dd/mm/yyyy

This amount includes the filing fee for this application. You may also owe me any new rent that comes due after I file this application. To see how I calculated this amount, go to page 5.

The following information is from the Landlord and Tenant Board

IF YOU AGREE with the amount the landlord claims you owe:

If you agree with the amount the landlord claims you owe, you can pay everything you owe or work out a payment plan. However, read the options before you decide. You may want to get legal advice first.

OPTION 1:
Pay
everything
you owe

If you pay all the rent you owe plus the landlord's filing fee before the Board issues an order about this application, the landlord will not be able to evict you for not paying the rent.

The amount you have to pay includes:

- the amount set out above that the landlord is claiming in this application, plus
- any new rent that has come due after the landlord filed this application.

You can pay these amounts to the landlord directly, or to the Board in trust. Be sure to get a receipt for any amounts you pay to the landlord.

Go to the hearing, where you can tell the Board what you've paid. If the landlord gave you receipts for amounts you paid, bring them to the hearing.

OPTION 2:
Work out a
payment plan

If you cannot pay everything you owe right now, you can talk to your landlord to see if they are willing to work out a payment plan.

If you and the landlord agree to a payment plan, go to the hearing where you can explain the payment plan to the Board.

OFFICE USE ONLY

File Number

OPTION 2:
Work out a payment
continued

The Board also has a Payment Agreement form that you and your landlord can fill out and file with the Board before the hearing. If you or your landlord files the Payment Agreement form with the Board before the hearing, the Board can issue a consent order without holding a hearing. The consent order will be based on the payment plan set out in the Payment Agreement form.

If the Board issues the consent order, you will not have to go to the hearing. However, if the Board has not issued a consent order by the date of the hearing, go to the hearing.

IF YOU DO NOT AGREE with the amount the landlord claims you owe:

Talk to your landlord to see if both of you can agree on a different amount. You may want to get legal advice first.

If you and your landlord
agree on a different amount

If you and your landlord can agree on the amount you owe, read the options above called Pay everything you owe and Work out a payment plan. You can follow one of these options, but use the different amount you and your landlord have agreed on. Go to the hearing unless the Board has issued a consent order based on a Payment Agreement.

If you and your landlord
do not agree on a different amount

If you and your landlord cannot agree on the amount you owe, go to the hearing, and, at the hearing, explain why you disagree with the amount the landlord claims you owe. If the Board decides that you owe money, you can ask for more time to pay it.

Go to the hearing

As described in this form, there are different options for dealing with the claims your landlord made in this application depending on whether or not you agree with the amount the landlord claims you owe. However, whatever you choose to do, it is important to participate in the hearing. The date, time and hearing method are shown on the Notice of Hearing that is attached to this application. (Exception: you do not have to attend the hearing if, before the hearing date, the Board issues a consent order based on a Payment Agreement form - however, if you and your landlord filled out the Payment Agreement form and you haven't received the consent order by the hearing date, go to the hearing.)

At the hearing, the landlord will have to prove the claims they made in the application and the Notice to End your Tenancy. You will have an opportunity to respond to the landlord's application. For example, you can explain why you disagree with the amount the landlord claimed you owe, or explain why you think you should not be evicted. You can also ask the Board for more time to pay the money you owe. If you have paid everything you owe before the hearing, or if you and your landlord have worked out a payment plan, you can tell the Board at the hearing.

At the hearing, you can also raise other issues such as maintenance problems or harassment if you give the landlord and the Board advance notice. If you plan to raise other issues, you must give the landlord and the Board a written description of each issue at least seven days before the hearing. Include details such as a description of the issue, when it began, and when you told your landlord. You can use a Board form for this purpose. You must also give a copy of all your evidence to support your case to the landlord and the Board at least seven days before the hearing. If the Board accepts your evidence, the Board may order the landlord to pay you money. If you owe arrears of rent, this may reduce the amount you owe.

After the hearing

The Board will make a decision and issue an order that will be sent to you by mail. The order will tell you what the Board decided, including what you have to pay. You should read the order to be sure it is correct and that you understand it.

For more information:

You can contact the Landlord and Tenant Board at 416-645-8080 or toll-free at 1-888-332-3234 or visit the Board's website at tribunalsontario.ca/LTB.

PART 5: DETAILS OF THE LANDLORD'S CLAIM

Section 1. Rent Owning

I have calculated the amount of rent the tenant owes me as follows:

| Rent Period          |                  | Rent Charged $ | Rent Paid $ | Rent Owning $ |
|----------------------|------------------|-----------------|--------------|----------------|
| From: (dd/mm/yyyy)   | To: (dd/mm/yyyy) |                 |              |                |

Section 2. NSF Cheque Charges

Fill in the table below if you are applying to collect money from the tenant because you had bank or administration charges for NSF cheques the tenant gave you.

I have calculated the amount of NSF bank charges and my related administration charges the tenant owes me as follows:

| Cheque Amount $                    | Date of Cheque dd/mm/yyyy | Date NSF Charge Incurred dd/mm/yyyy | Bank Charge for NSF Cheque $ | Landlord's Administration Charge $ | Total Charge $ |
|-------------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------------------|-------------------------------|-------------------------------------|-----------------|
|                                     |                           |                                     |                               |                                     |                 |
|                                     |                           |                                     |                               |                                     |                 |
